

(a) what we believe now

(b) what a panchromatic SED would do

(c) where the uncertainty lives

* Projected. Assumes the measured offset persists over the star's history: the saturated phase that sets the cumulative flux ended ~ 5 Gyr ago and cannot be observed.